

A Dangerous Hunt

I was looking at my very shiny treasure, I heard a person say my name "Sun God". I was walking down the cold, hard, stone stairs of the tower to head towards the creaky rope bridge.

I started in the direction of the creaky rope bridge, I heard a gunshot, Bang! The rope bridge broke. So I leaped to the other side.

Then I reached the forest and I saw who the villain was. He was the 'King of Darkness'. He shot some branches down and blocked my path. Then along came a pirate lion. He was called 'King Lion'.... Roar!

King Lion aided me by pushing the branches out of the way. Since he was good/ helpful and the king of the jungle, I let him be with me. The King of Darkness was charging at us and he knocked me over. I got up. Then he pulled out his sword and hit King Lion... Smash!

While he was looking at King Lion, I pushed him over ...Thump! Then King Lion jumped on him. King of Darkness ran so fast like the wind rustling in the forest. He disappeared and was never going to be seen again.

Afterward we went to the pirate ship and set sail to get the treasure. We headed to Spooky Island and we went to a scary secret place and we dug up the treasure. The King and I were able to live the way we deserved to ...rich and happy.
