

ETHICS CLASSES AT WARRAWEE PUBLIC SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Carers,

Ethics classes will be available at Warrawee Public School from Wednesday 27th February as an alternative to non-scripture.

The NSW government has authorised Primary Ethics, a not-for profit organisation, to design curriculum and deliver these classes. Classes are inquiry based and children use dialogue and discussion to learn how to think about ethical matters through the give-and-take of reasoned argument.

Local residents, Mark Byers, Paul Sowter, Alex Kroh, Minh Ho, Unis Goh, Emma Anderson, Angela Sciacca and Antionette Mullins have kindly volunteered again to be our ethics teachers. Students will be divided into classes according to their year as follows:

Years 5 & 6: Mark Byers

Years 3 & 4: Paul Sowter, Alex Kroh

Years 1 & 2: Unis Goh, Emma Anderson and Minh Ho & Angela Sciacca,

Kindergarten: Antoinette Mullins

If you would like your child to enrol in the ethics classes, please return this form to the Primary and Infants offices from Friday, February 15th. The class size is limited to 22 pupils so in the event of over-enrolment, the first 22 forms received for each class will be offered a place. The enrolments from last year do not roll over to this year. Everyone interested will need to re-enrol each year.
